Dear Ones,

The most recent presbytery meeting took place the last day of April at Titusville Presbyterian -- the church where I grew up. It was delightful to be joined by Jenn Wedzik, who attended as your voting commissioner.

Presbytery meetings are always fascinating and highly informative (really!) but this one was also brimming with holy magic.

Although I'm at the Titusville church every month for Committee on Ministry meetings, have substituted in the pulpit, and have attended other presbytery meetings there, for some reason, the one I was remembering most clearly was my one as moderator of presbytery. In that case, I was scared stiff and not noticing anything.

This week, maybe it's because Jenn was there, and she's such a wonderful symbol of this church, or maybe it was because we began the meeting in the fellowship hall. Who knows? But there was plenty to notice.

There was my junior high youth fellowship advisor in the kitchen dishing out chicken. There was my 10th grade geography teacher handing out bulletins. There were at least three choir members who were singing when I was. And I teared up with each instance of that lovely holy magic.

And then....discovering the massive early-1800's stained glass window of Jonathan and David (I had to look it up, too) hidden away in one of the upstairs Sunday school rooms where my Open Space group met. Such an impression did that window make on my youth as the visual centerpiece of the chapel where youth Sunday school classes were held -- since swallowed up by a new Christian education building -- that it still appears in my dreams. Lo and behold, how did I not know that all the windows and much of the antique woodwork were retained? The building went up after I left Titusville for college, so I had not seen that window for about 50 years.

And that was followed by a running exploration with Rev. Keith Sundberg (Wayside) and CLP Patti Orton Kuna (Sugar Grove) in tow through more rooms and the prayer room and down the back stairs, just glorying in the beauty of the preserved parts of that magical building that cocooned my early spiritual formation.

Good thing I was in the lead, because I was weeping. There. Admitted it.

The purpose of that long story is to bless you and thank you for all the holy magic you and your beloved church building – so filled with beauty and history – are making right now for yourselves, the youth, and all your brothers and sisters in Christ.

It's happening all the time. Every time you sing in the choir. Every time you teach a Sunday school class. Every time you visit a shut-in or deliver flowers. Every time you pray together. Every time you work in the kitchen or fix a faucet. Every time you decorate the sanctuary. Every time you get the bricks fixed or work the Swiss steak dinner.

Every single time you do these things and so, so many more, you are actually praying, and growing closer to God and intensifying your relationship with Christ. And making holy magic.

Most recently, you've taken huge strides that are tracking holy magic in your wake. Look at Bob Kellerman getting the Website up and running! Look at Rev. Tim Logan reviving Calvin Fellowship with movie discussions, and then Brian and Barb Griffith adding breakfast and recruiting other great cooks! Look at Un-glued Church, and Wine and the Word book discussions!

Things are moving, and God is moving among us. Bless you and thank you.

I am so honored to be among you,

Pastor Robin

P.S. And I learned that the old fellowship hall still exists in the dark, locked basement of the Titusville church. Can't wait until my next visit.

"I need to worship because without it I can forget that I have a big God beside me and live in fear. I need to worship because without it I can forget his calling and begin to live in a spirit of self-preoccupation. I need to worship because without it I lose a sense of wonder and gratitude and plod through life with blinders on. I need worship because my natural tendency is toward self-reliance and stubborn independence."—John Ortberg

"There are no unique postures and times and limitations that restrict our access to God. My relationship with God is intimate and personal. The Christian does not go to the temple to worship. The Christian takes the temple with him or her. Jesus lifts us beyond the building and pays the human body the highest compliment by making it His dwelling place, the place where He meets with us."—Ravi Zacharias

ELMWOOD GARDENS AUXILIARY

May is older Americans month and the month that Elmwood Gardens Auxiliary holds their annual campaign for membership, monetary donations and support for the approximate 90 residents.

The money collected is used to support monthly shopping outings (usually Wal-Mart). Since most of our residents need a walker or wheelchair it is necessary to use The Lift for transportation. The cost of The Lift is costly. Many times (if not most) only one "bus" is needed. A monthly birthday party is held, Mother's Day and Father's Day gatherings in addition to holding other celebrations through out the year including Christmas. MANY of the residents have only staff and auxiliary members as their family. Church members are encouraged to support this annual campaign either via monetarily and or volunteering time or talent at one of the gatherings.

Donation envelopes will be placed in the church pews for your convenience. Thank you in advance for your support.

Blessings, Sue Kellerman
Auxiliary Member

Motion and second to approve the wedding of Kyle Foust and Casey Cass Stoll on September 14th was approved. Pastor Robin will be officiating.

UNGLUED CHURCH PROJECT: Barb reported on reflections and discussion to start this program. They also reviewed the results of the churches in the area by the Presbyterian Foundation survey. All are invited to attend.

Motion made and seconded to send in the $600 fee for this project into Presbytery. Motion carried.

Last day of Sunday school will be May 19th.

MEMBERSHIP CARE & DEVELOPMENT: The Membership Committee moves that we have an all-member visitation day on Sunday, May 19. The plan is for Session members, Deacons and the Membership Committee members to visit all families of the church that day, presenting each family with a free geranium and giving them a short questionnaire regarding their likes/dislikes and wishes for the future of HPC. Families will be visited by teams of two and the questionnaire/ postcard would be filled out on the spot. It is believed that each team will have 4-5 families to visit and the lists will be compiled by the Membership Committee.

MISSION & OUTREACH: On March 31st, we served lunch to 65 people at St. Paul's upper room. Thanks to those who helped.

We received notice that our grant application from the Presbytery's Woman's group for $200 was received and approved. This will go toward the expenses of the Church's summer reading program. Thanks to Ann Nesgoda for a good job.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Ellen Flowers, Clerk of Session

Spring Swiss Steak Dinner

A big 'THANK YOU' for everyone who helped to put on a very successful event. It ran very smoothly and had many great comments. Kudos to all the chair people that make sure everything comes together. We served a good 360 dinners and had just enough meat left for a 4th Tuesday gathering. The profit for all our efforts is $2708 which will go towards our $4000 Presbytery Mission pledge. Greeting Cards

Sue Kellerman is still collecting greeting cards to be sent to St. Jude's Ranch for Children. The cards are recycled by the residents at St. Jude's Ranch to sell. There is a basket on the table in the old entrance.

Good morning my dear friends,

Have you been to the stores lately? People are scurrying around buying fertilizer, dirt, bulbs, and most important seeds. Let's see vegetable seeds, flower seeds, grass seeds. Why even the trees let go of their seeds this time of the year that means new trees will grow and replace the ones that came to the end of their life. Imagine this world without seeds. No peaches, carrots, oats, "chocolate" that would be sad. Seeds, seeds, seeds, seeds are everywhere we are very thankful for seeds. But the most important seed is the seed that was planted in us by God. If we nurture that seed giving it love, kindness, forgiveness and understanding we will grow in our faith. We all have that little seed instilled in us. The parable of the Sower... A Christian who hears and understands the word will produce the fruit of the spirit. The parable of the Weeds... Believers and non-Believers will be together until Christ returns to separate them. The Parable of the Growing Seed... The faith of a Christian will grow by the power of God. The parable of the Mustard seed.. Although a Christian's faith and spiritual vitality start off small, they will eventually become great. So whether it's flowers or vegetables or what ever you plant please be aware that the most important seed is the one from God.

I would like to take this opportunity to say hello to some of my friends: Madeline and Cylie Shrimper, Matthew and Sam Wedzik, Jasmine and Forest Mosier, Troy and Maria Barker, Evan Foust, Daniel, Jessie and Janie Hedlund, Jacob Graff, Olivia Palmer, Noah Stewart and our little one Avery Hooks. Would like to hear from you, let me know how you are doing, what you are doing and would you like to have lunch with me?

Let's all say a prayer for Donna Fannin because I heard she is or was in the hospital. Glad to hear that Sue Beighley is ok. Good luck to Marnie Logan as she goes to physical therapy.

Ask God to plant His love in you in such a profound and powerful way that you are able to fully experience it. Ask also that His love will flow through you to others.

God Bless you and keep you in His care.
In Christ,

The Church Mouse

Lost and Found

On occasion items are left in the church office. When no one picks them up after a week or so, they get put in a box under the committee mail boxes. Please check the Lost and Found box—if something is yours, please, take it. All items that are left will go in the Garage Sale on June 1.

"When every hope is gone, 'when helpers fail and comforts flee,' I find that help arrives somehow, from I know not where. Supplication, worship, prayer are no superstition; they are acts more real than the acts of eating, drinking, sitting or walking. It is no exaggeration to say that they alone are real, all else is unreal." — Mahatma Gandhi , Gandhi: An autobiography
